NOTICE OF HEARING AND JOINT MOTION FOR AN ORDER
EXTENDING DEBTORS' EXCLUSIVE PERIODS WITHIN WHICH TO FILE
A PLAN OF REORGANIZATION AND SOLICIT VOTES THEREON

TO: The parties in interest as specified in Local Rule 9013-3(a)(2).

1. Magnetation LLC ("Mag LLC") and its subsidiaries that are debtors and debtors in possession in these proceedings (collectively, the "Debtors") by this motion (this "Motion") move this Court for the relief requested below and give notice of hearing.

2. The Court will hold a hearing on the Motion at 1:00 p.m. (prevailing Central time) on August 19, 2015 in Courtroom No. 2A, U.S. Courthouse, 316 North Robert Street, St. Paul, Minnesota 55101.

3. Any response to this Motion must be filed and served not later than August 14, 2015, which is five days before the time set for the hearing. UNLESS A RESPONSE

OPPOSING THE MOTION IS TIMELY FILED, THE COURT MAY GRANT THE MOTION WITHOUT A HEARING.

4. This Court has jurisdiction over this Motion pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334, Rule 5005 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”) and Local Rules 1070-1 and 1073-1. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b) and may be determined by this Court. Venue is proper before this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409. On May 5, 2015 (the “Petition Date”), each of the Debtors commenced with this Court a voluntary case under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101, et seq. (the “Bankruptcy Code”). The Debtors’ cases are being jointly administered pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b).

5. This Motion arises under sections 1121(b), (c) and (d) of the Bankruptcy Code. This Motion is filed under Local Rules 9013-1, 9013-2 and 9013-3. Notice of the hearing on this Motion is provided pursuant to Bankruptcy Rules 2002(a) and 9013 and Local Rules 2002-1(b), 9013-2 and 9013-3.

BACKGROUND

6. In the weeks leading up to the Petition Date, the Debtors sought to secure a commitment for postpetition financing on the best possible terms available. In consultation with their advisors, the Debtors determined that the offer by certain holders (the “Ad Hoc Committee”) of the Debtors’ 11.0% senior secured notes due 2018 (the “Senior Secured Notes”) represented the best source of financing under the circumstances. As a condition to the Ad Hoc Committee’s providing postpetition financing, the Ad Hoc Committee required that the Debtors agree on the principal terms of a plan of reorganization and post-reorganization capital structure, as set forth in a term sheet (the “Plan Term Sheet”) that was filed as Exhibit D to the Debtors' Notice of Hearing and Joint Motion for Entry of Interim and Final Orders (i) Granting an Expedited Hearing, (ii) Authorizing the Debtors (a) to Obtain Postpetition Financing Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105, 361, 362, 364(c)(1), 364(c)(2), 364(c)(3), 364(d)(1), 364(e) and 507 and (b) to Utilize Cash Collateral Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 363 and (iii) Granting Adequate Protection to Prepetition Secured Creditors Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 361, 362, 363, 364 and 507 [ECF No. 18] (the "DIP Motion"). Additionally, the DIP Credit Agreement (as defined in the DIP Motion) sets forth milestones for certain key events in the Debtors' chapter 11 cases, including a requirement that the Debtors file a plan and disclosure statement in form and substance acceptable to the Required Lenders (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement) by August 3, 2015. The DIP Credit Agreement was subsequently amended to extend this milestone solely with respect to a disclosure statement to September 1, 2015.

7. The Debtors are also party to a restructuring support agreement with holders of over 78% in amount of the Senior Secured Notes and consented to by Mag Inc. (the "RSA"), pursuant to which the parties thereto memorialized their support of the Plan Term Sheet subject to the terms therein. The RSA also requires that the Debtors comply with the milestones set forth in the DIP Credit Agreement.

8. On August 3, 2015, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Joint Plan of Reorganization Under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code [ECF No. 284] (the "Plan") in form and substance acceptable to the Required Lenders, thereby satisfying the applicable milestones in the DIP Credit Agreement and the RSA. While the Plan embodies the agreements, terms and conditions set forth in the RSA, the Debtors believe that additional negotiation and the resolution of certain key contingencies, including the Debtors' contractual arrangement with its sole customer, AK Steel Corporation (“AK Steel”) and recoveries to unsecured creditors, are necessary before they can file a disclosure statement that contains adequate information and solicit votes on the Plan.

9. Additional information about the Debtors’ businesses and the events leading up to the Petition Date can be found in the Declaration of Joseph A. Broking in Support of the Debtors’ Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Motions [ECF No. 8] (the “Officer Declaration”), filed on May 5, 2015, which is incorporated herein by reference.

RELIEF REQUESTED

10. By this Motion the Debtors seek an order in the form attached hereto, pursuant to section 1121(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, extending by 60 days each of (i) the exclusive period for the Debtors to file a chapter 11 plan (the “Exclusive Filing Period”), from September 2, 2015 to November 1, 2015, and (ii) the exclusive period for the Debtors to solicit acceptances thereof (the “Exclusive Solicitation Period” and, together with the Exclusive Filing Period, the “Debtors’ Exclusive Periods”), from November 1, 2015 to December 31, 2015. The Debtors seek these extensions to avoid the necessity of having to pursue confirmation of a plan of reorganization prematurely and to ensure that their plan of reorganization best addresses the interests of the Debtors and their employees, creditors and estates.

11. Pursuant to Local Rule 9013-2, this Motion is verified and is accompanied by a memorandum of law and proposed order.

12. Pursuant to Local Rule 9013-2, the Debtors give notice that they may, if necessary, call Joseph A. Broking, Chief Financial Officer of Magnetation LLC, an authorized representative of the Debtors, to testify at the hearing on the Motion regarding the facts set out herein. The witness’s business address is 102 NE 3rd Street, Suite 120, Grand Rapids, Minnesota 55744.

THE DEBTORS' RESTRUCTURING EFFORTS

13. The Debtors are an innovative natural resources company headquartered in Grand Rapids, Minnesota. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors employed approximately 486 people, directly or contractually through a management services agreement with the majority member of Mag LLC, Magnetation Inc. (“Mag Inc.”), and operated three¹ plants at which they produce iron ore concentrate using the proprietary technology and associated intellectual property licensed from Mag Inc., one plant at which they produce iron ore pellets and a rail load-out facility.

14. In addition to the substantial efforts required to operate their businesses in chapter 11, since the Petition Date, the Debtors have worked diligently to stabilize their businesses and reassure their vendors, employees and other key constituents. In the three months since the Petition Date, the Debtors and their advisors have also dedicated significant time and resources to, among other things, (a) obtaining approval of the $135 million debtor-in-possession financing on appropriate terms, permitting the financing of the Debtors' operations during these chapter 11 cases, (b) obtaining approval of various other critical early case relief, (c) beginning the process of analyzing hundreds of leases and executory contracts to identify those that are beneficial to the Debtors' estates and should be assumed and those that should be rejected, (d) responding to a multitude of creditor and supplier inquiries, (e) finalizing and filing the Debtors' schedules of assets and liabilities, income and expenditures and executory contracts and unexpired leases, and their statements of financial affairs and amendments thereto (the “Debtors' Schedules and Statements”), (f) engaging in negotiations with critical vendors and contract counterparties, (g) establishing a deadline by which to file section 503(b)(9) claims and procedures to address such claims, (h) obtaining approval of a key employee incentive plan, (i) negotiating and securing approval for entry into the RSA and (j) obtaining approval of the retention and appointment of a chief restructuring officer.

15. Tangible progress has been made toward the Debtors' goals of improving their capital structure and restructuring their business to address the difficulties posed by the current iron ore and steel markets. As demonstrated by the successful negotiation and execution of the RSA and the filing of the Plan, the Debtors are moving forward with a plan of reorganization that will embody a viable, value-maximizing path forward. Moreover, the level of diligence and energy that the Debtors have brought to these chapter 11 cases is reflected by the almost total absence of contested matters in these chapter 11 cases. However, given the complexity of the issues faced by the Debtors and the competitive and unpredictable environment in which the Debtors are operating, additional time is necessary to reach consensual and productive resolutions of all outstanding issues. Accordingly, the Debtors have identified a brief period, well within the standard time for an initial extension of exclusivity in a case of this size, which they believe will allow them to make meaningful progress while still minimizing the time spent in chapter 11.

16. Specifically, an extension of the Debtors' Exclusive Periods is required to enable the Debtors to:

- (a) continue to negotiate with their key customer, AK Steel, regarding the parties' contractual arrangement going forward;
- (b) continue to refine their business model to deliver both a more efficient cost structure and future revenue growth so that the Debtors can continue to compete effectively in the iron ore industry;
- (c) further implement specific restructuring initiatives;

- (d) complete analysis of the Debtors' executory contracts and leases;
- (e) secure adequate liquidity upon emergence from chapter 11; and
- (f) further develop support for a plan of reorganization reflecting the initiatives set forth above and others that are underway.

NO PREVIOUS REQUEST

17. No previous request for the relief sought herein has been made by the Debtors to this Court or any other court.

WHEREFORE, the Debtors request entry of an order:

- A. extending the Exclusive Filing Period from September 2, 2015 to November 1, 2015 and the Exclusive Solicitation Period from November 1, 2015 to December 31, 2015; and
- B. granting such other relief as the Court deems just and equitable.

Chapter 11 Cases

MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF JOINT MOTION FOR AN ORDER
EXTENDING DEBTORS' EXCLUSIVE PERIODS WITHIN WHICH TO FILE
A PLAN OF REORGANIZATION AND SOLICIT VOTES THEREON

Magnetation LLC and each of its subsidiaries that are debtors and debtors in possession in these chapter 11 cases (collectively, the “Debtors”) submit this memorandum of law in support of the motion submitted herewith (the “Motion”) in accordance with Local Rule 9013-2(a). The Debtors request that the Court extend the Exclusive Filing Period from September 2, 2015 to November 1, 2015 and the Exclusive Solicitation Period from November 1, 2015 to December 31, 2015. The Court should grant the relief requested in the Motion in order to allow the Debtors the time and flexibility to resolve outstanding issues surrounding the Debtors’ businesses going forward and further develop and negotiate a consensual plan of reorganization with their key stakeholders.

BACKGROUND

The supporting facts are set forth in the verified Motion, verified by Joseph A. Broking, Chief Financial Officer of Magnetation LLC. All capitalized terms used herein and not otherwise defined shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Motion.

LEGAL ANALYSIS

Pursuant to section 1121(d)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, this Court may extend a debtor's exclusive periods upon a demonstration of cause:

Subject to paragraph (2),¹ on request of a party in interest made within the respective periods specified in subsections (b) and (c) of this section and after notice and a hearing, the court may for cause reduce or increase the 120-day period or the 180-day period referred to in this section.

11 U.S.C. § 1121(d)(1).

The exclusive periods provided by Congress were incorporated in the Bankruptcy Code to afford a debtor a full and fair opportunity to propose a consensual plan and solicit acceptances of such plan without the deterioration and disruption of the debtor's business that might be caused by the filing of competing plans by non-debtor parties. Moreover, the Debtors are the only parties that have fiduciary duties to the entire enterprise, and they are the only parties that are duty-bound to formulate a plan of reorganization that takes into account the interests of the estates and all their constituents. Lange v. Schropp (In re Brook Valley VII), 496 F.3d 892, 900 (8th Cir. 2007) (debtors in possession "owe fiduciary duties to the bankruptcy estate"), see also ¹ Paragraph (2) states that the exclusive periods may not be extended beyond 18 and 20 months after the petition date.

Collier on Bankruptcy ¶ 1103.05[2] nn. 21-23 (committees “do not have a fiduciary duty to the debtor, to other creditor groups, or to the estate generally”). To allow the Debtors’ Exclusive Periods to lapse would defeat the very purpose of section 1121 of the Bankruptcy Code.

The principal goal of chapter 11 is the successful reorganization of debtors in order to increase the pool of assets available to creditors. See NLRB v. Bildisco & Bildisco, 465 U.S. 513, 527 (1984); United States v. Whiting Pools, Inc., 462 U.S. 198, 203 (1983). The Congressional intent woven throughout chapter 11 is that the principal means of a successful rehabilitation should be a considered and consensual plan. See Gaines v. Perkins (In re Perkins), 71 B.R. 294, 297 (W.D. Tenn. 1987). To promote the formulation of a considered and consensual plan, Congress gave the debtor the exclusive right to propose a plan of reorganization for a specified and extendable period. See In re Ames Dep’t Stores Inc., No. 90-11233, 1991 WL 259036 at *3 (S.D.N.Y. Nov. 25, 1991) (“The purpose of the Bankruptcy Code’s exclusivity period is to allow the debtor flexibility to negotiate with its creditors.”).

Whether “cause” exists to extend a debtor’s exclusive periods to file and solicit acceptances of a plan of reorganization is a decision committed to the sound discretion of the bankruptcy court based upon the facts and circumstances of each particular case. Bunch v. Hoffinger Indus. (In re Hoffinger Indus.), 292 B.R. 639, 643 (B.A.P. 8th Cir. 2003). Congress intended to give the bankruptcy court maximum flexibility to make such a determination. In re Amko Plastics, Inc., 197 B.R. 74, 77 (Bankr. S.D. Ohio 1996) (citation omitted); see also H.R. Rep. No. 95-595, at 232 (1978), reprinted in 1978 U.S.C.C.A.N. 5963, 6191. While the term “cause” is not defined by the statute, the legislative history indicates that it is to be viewed flexibly “in order to allow the debtor to reach an agreement.” In re McLean Indus., Inc., 87 B.R. 830, 833 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1987) (quoting H.R. Rep. No. 95-595, at 231 (1978)); see also In re

Borders Group, Inc., 460 B.R. 818, 821-22 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2011) (“The determination of cause under section 1121(d) is a fact-specific inquiry and the court has broad discretion in extending or terminating exclusivity.”).

In determining whether cause exists to extend a debtor’s exclusive periods, the Bankruptcy Appellate Panel for the Eighth Circuit has identified the following factors:

- (a) the large size of a debtor and the consequent difficulty in formulating a plan of reorganization for a huge debtor with a complex financial structure;
- (b) the need of a creditors’ committee to negotiate with the debtor and the ability to prepare adequate information;
- (c) the existence of good faith progress towards reorganization;
- (d) the existence of an unresolved contingency;
- (e) the fact that the debtor is paying bills as they become due;
- (f) the length of previous extensions of exclusivity;
- (g) breakdowns in plan negotiations, such that the continuation of the debtor’s exclusivity period would result in the debtor having an unfair bargaining position over creditors;
- (h) the debtor’s failure to resolve fundamental reorganization matters essential to its survival; and
- (i) the gross mismanagement of the debtor.

Bunch v. Hoffinger Indus. (In re Hoffinger Indus.), 292 B.R. at 643-44 (B.A.P. 8th Cir. 2003). This list of factors is not exclusive, nor are all factors relevant in every case. Id. at 644. Other factors that courts have considered include “whether the debtor has demonstrated reasonable prospects for filing a viable plan” and “whether the debtor has made progress negotiating with creditors.” See, e.g., In re Service Merchandise Co., 256 B.R. 744, 751 (Bankr. M.D. Tenn. 2000). Ultimately, these factors are merely aids to the court in evaluating whether extension will allow the debtor a “reasonable time in light of the bankruptcy case in its entirety” to allow the debtor to negotiate a plan of reorganization. In re McLean Indus., Inc., 87 B.R. 830, 834 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1987).

Ample Cause Exists to Extend the Debtors’ Exclusive Periods

An analysis of the various factors noted above demonstrates that sufficient cause exists for the extension of the Exclusive Filing Period from September 2, 2015 to November 1, 2015 and the Exclusive Solicitation Period from November 1, 2015 to December 31, 2015.

a. The Debtors’ Cases Are Large and Complex.

Courts have regularly extended the exclusive periods under section 1121(d) of the Bankruptcy Code in large, complex chapter 11 cases so as to afford the debtor time to stabilize its business and lay the groundwork for an effective plan of reorganization before beginning the formal plan negotiation, filing and solicitation process. See, e.g., In re Crescent Mfg. Co., 122 B.R. 979, 982 (Bankr. N.D. Ohio 1990), see also H.R. Rep. No. 95-595, at 231-32 (1978) reprinted in 1978 U.S.C.C.A.N. 5963, 6191 (“[I]f an unusually large company were to seek reorganization under Chapter 11, the Court would probably need to extend the time in order to allow the debtor to reach an agreement.”). Indeed, the size and complexity of the case, by itself, can support a determination that cause exists for an extension of exclusivity. See, e.g., In re Express One Int’l, Inc., 194 B.R. 98, 100 (Bankr. E.D. Tex. 1996) (noting that two previous extensions of exclusivity had been granted based on the size and complexity of the case alone); In re Texaco, Inc., 76 B.R. 322, 325-27 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1987) (cause existed to warrant first extension of exclusivity based on the size and complexity of the case alone).

More than 286 motions, notices, applications, petitions, orders and other pleadings have been filed in just the first three months of these cases. Addressing these motions, negotiating with vendors and counterparties, responding to a multitude of creditor and supplier inquiries, gathering the information required to complete the Debtors' Schedules and Statements and engaging with AK Steel, the Creditors' Committee, the Ad Hoc Committee and other constituencies has required extensive time and resources. While such efforts have been productive, the breadth and depth of the issues that have arisen in the first few months of these cases demonstrate their size and complexity and the appropriateness of an extension of the Debtors' Exclusive Periods.

b. The Debtors Need More Time to Negotiate a Consensual Plan of Reorganization and Prepare Adequate Information.

As set forth herein, there are certain critical matters that must be resolved before the Debtors can further pursue and gain approval of the Plan and prepare the accompanying disclosure statement containing adequate information.

c. The Debtors Have Made Good Faith Progress Toward Reorganization.

The Debtors' demonstrated progress in resolving many issues that have come up since the Petition Date also justifies the requested extension of the Debtors' Exclusive Periods. See In re Amko Plastics, Inc., 197 B.R. 74, 77 (Bankr. S.D. Ohio 1996) (granting an extension of the debtor's exclusive periods because the debtor was making reasonable efforts to implement its extensive turnaround program). The Debtors have engaged with the Creditors' Committee and other constituents in order to resolve creditor concerns quickly, economically and, in virtually all cases, without judicial involvement. Additionally, the Debtors have entered into the RSA, providing significant detail about a viable path forward and illustrating the significant extent of financial stakeholder support for the Debtors' current roadmap to a successful reorganization.

d. An Extension of the Debtors' Exclusive Periods Will Enable the Debtors to Resolve Certain Contingencies That Will Affect a Plan of Reorganization.

The existence of unresolved contingencies, the resolution of which will affect a debtor's ability to confirm a plan of reorganization, supports an extension of the exclusive periods. In re McLean Indus., Inc., 87 B.R. at 834, accord Bunch v. Hoffinger Indus., (In re Hoffinger Indus.), 292 B.R. at 644 (the "existence of an unresolved contingency" is a factor in determining extension of exclusivity). As this Court and all parties are aware, the Debtors must still address their contractual arrangement with their sole customer, AK Steel, as well as a number of other critical issues, before they can prosecute a plan of reorganization that will lead to long-term viability.

e. The Debtors Have Been Paying Their Postpetition Debts When Due.

The fact that the Debtors have had sufficient liquidity to pay their postpetition debts as they come due supports the granting of an extension of the Debtors' Exclusive Periods, because it suggests that such an extension will not jeopardize the rights of postpetition creditors and counterparties. The Debtors have been paying their undisputed postpetition debts as they come due and expect to continue to be able to do so.

f. These Cases Have Been Pending for Only Three Months.

This is the first request for an extension of the Debtors' Exclusive Periods, and it comes only three months after the Debtors' chapter 11 filings. Accordingly, the Debtors are not yet in a position to seek confirmation of a comprehensive plan of reorganization and prepare a disclosure statement containing adequate information. Accordingly, an extension of the Debtors' Exclusive Periods is warranted.

g. The Debtors' Motive in Requesting the Extensions is Not to Pressure their Creditors.

Rather than requesting the extension of the Debtors' Exclusive Periods as a negotiation tactic or as a means of maintaining leverage over any group of creditors whose interests may be harmed by such an extension, the Debtors are requesting the extensions to give themselves sufficient time to further develop and negotiate a plan of reorganization that maximizes creditor recoveries. Allowing the Debtors' Exclusive Periods to terminate at this premature point would defeat one of the primary purposes of section 1121 of the Bankruptcy Code, which is the development of a consensual plan of reorganization. In re Mid-State Raceway, Inc., 323 B.R. 63, 68 (Bankr. N.D.N.Y. 2005) ("exclusivity is intended to promote an environment in which the debtor's business may be rehabilitated and a consensual plan may be negotiated.") (quoting H.R. Rep. No. 103-835, at 36 (1994), reprinted in 1994 U.S.C.C.A.N. 3340, 3344).

h. The Debtors Have Demonstrated Reasonable Prospects for Filing a Viable Plan of Reorganization.

As discussed above, the Debtors have already made progress in stabilizing their businesses and taking steps toward long-term profitability. An extension of the Debtors' Exclusive Periods will enable the Debtors and various economic stakeholders to further develop a plan of reorganization that will maximize the value of the Debtors' estates.

i. The Debtors Have Made Progress in Negotiating with Their Creditors.

As noted above, holders of more than 78% in amount of the Debtors' Senior Secured Notes have entered into the RSA with the Debtors, which was consented to by Mag Inc., the licensor of the technology at the heart of the Debtors' businesses. Although more work remains to be done to reach consensual resolutions with as many of the Debtors' creditors and other counterparties as possible, given the brief life of these chapter 11 cases, the progress represented by the RSA and the Plan is substantial.

The Requested Extensions are Consistent With Those Granted in Other Chapter 11 Cases

This Court and other courts in this district have granted requests by the debtors to extend their periods of exclusivity for an amount of time similar to, or substantially larger than, the extension requested herein. See, e.g., In re The Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis, Case No. 15-30125 (Bankr. D. Minn. Apr. 9, 2015) (RJK) [ECF No. 168] (initial extensions of 198 days for filing a plan and 197 days for soliciting acceptances thereof); In re Wagstaff Minnesota, Inc., et al., Case No. 11-43073 (NCD) (Bankr. D. Minn. Aug. 12, 2011) [ECF No. 222] (initial extensions of 125 days); In re Duke and King Acquisition Corp., Case No. 10-38652 (GFK) (Bankr. D. Minn. March 14, 2011) [ECF No. 178] (initial extensions of 90 days); In re Genmar Holdings, Inc., Case No. 09-43537 (DDO) (Bankr. D. Minn. Sept. 24, 2009) [ECF Nos. 433, 525] (extensions on interim basis of 36 days, extensions on final basis of 124 days); In re Polaroid Corp., et al., Case No. 08-46617 (GFK) (Bankr. D. Minn. Apr. 16, 2009) [ECF No. 327] (initial extensions of 30 days).

In sum, the Debtors submit that ample cause exists under the Bankruptcy Code and the applicable case law for the requested extensions of the Debtors' Exclusive Periods.

CONCLUSION

The Debtors respectfully request that the Court enter an order extending the Exclusive Filing Period from September 2, 2015 to November 1, 2015 and the Exclusive Solicitation Period from November 1, 2015 to December 31, 2015.
